

His Excellency, Mr. Idriss Raoua Ouedraogo, Ambassador – Burkina Faso released First Copy of CEDP Trust Newsletter

His Excellency Ambassador of Burkina Faso Mr. Idriss Raoua Ouedraogo inaugurated and released CEDP Trust's 1st Copy of Newsletter at CEDP Skill Institute's Thane International Incubation Centre. He congratulated and praised CEDP Trust's Team for the impressive and notable work done for under-privileged youth of India. Mr. Idriss spoke at length about how skill deficit nation's economy faces downward spiral and how initiatives of NGOs like CEDP Trust is need of an hour to tackle this phenomenon by reaching out to underprivileged irrespective of age, sex, economic status, religion, language, cultures etc.

CEDP Trust Conducted Career Guidance for Street & Orphans Youth from Sneha Sagar NGO

Street kids and orphaned children are always on the constant risk of getting trafficked or life gets awry. To address this concern, CEDP Trust conducted a career guidance seminar at Sneha Sagar NGO, which works for shelter children who have lost their parents to various illnesses such as HIV/AIDS, TB, etc. CEDP Trust's counselor guided them about various career opportunities they can explore at various sectors for them. The rise of the job opportunities industries in health-care, automobile sector and hospitality sector presents significant opportunities for transforming youth and this was successfully conveyed to the students of NGO. They were very happy with the seminar as they expressed the experience as the light at the end of the tunnel as it will help them to take informed career decision.

CEDP Trust reached more than 500 students through Career Guidance Seminar at Eklavya Adivasi Sangh NGO's Annual Program

A study on the challenges faced by the tribal youth in India showed that they are less educated and require an effective and quality education along with skill training to enhance their quality of life. With an aim to shape the future of these youth, CEDP Trust organised a seminar that reached over 500 students at Eklavya Adivasi Sangh's annual program. Eklavya Adivasi Sangh NGO works for the tribal community to maintain the unity and preserve the culture. CEDP Trust partnered with the NGO so that support can be provided to the tribal youth throughout the year.

CEDP Trust partners with World Vision to provide English speaking and Soft Skills training to underprivileged children and youth

CEDP Trust has provided "English Speaking and Soft Skills" training to underprivileged children and youth of World Vision India's project at Mumbai. The duration of the course was of 2 months and all the course material costs were borne by CEDP Trust. CEDP Trust conducted sessions across Marol, Asalfa, Ghatkoper, Powai, Dharavi and Sion and total 148 students were benefited. The course included certificates, demo and video lectures, notes, business communication sessions, tips on honing interview skills, grooming tips, resume making and life skill training. CEDP Trust along with the World Vision gave these underprivileged children and youth an opportunity that will help them to move ahead not just in terms of education but also explore their latent talents.

CEDP Trust organised Free 'Medical Camp' & Career Guidance at Kandivali Slum Area

Free medical camp was organised for the treatment of slum people in Kandivali by CEDP Trust. Dr. Ajanta R Yadav, Secretary, Mumbai Congress Committee who is also an ex-Corporator visited and applauded for this altruistic initiative. More than 100 slum dwellers were benefitted out of this medical check up program.

CEDP Trust associates with Masoom to provide Hotel Management courses and paid-internship programs to marginalized children

CEDP Trust has provided "Hotel Management Course" programs to the underprivileged children and youth of Masoom NGO. Masoom NGO primarily empowers and strengthens night schools so that youth learn better & earn better. CEDP Trust ensured that these youth will learn and earn simultaneously.

These students underwent Hotel Management course for 4 months and they are currently undergoing 'On-Job-Training' for 8 months. For the convenience of the students, the Trust took locations for training purposes and provided internship opportunities near to their residence. The Trust also offered these students with an excellent internship opportunity at The Lalit Hotel, ITC Fortune Hotel and Fern Residency Hotel.

Career Guidance Seminar for Unemployed Youth in Mumbai at CEDP Skill Institute International Incubation Centre by CEDP Trust

As we all know youth play a key role in shaping up the fate of our nation. It is during our youthfulness where one takes action on future career plans. Upholding this concern, CEDP Trust conducted seminar for unemployed youth at CEDP Skill Institute International Incubation Centre. More than 60 kids were informed about the opportunities in various sectors by the subject experts. They were given special one-on-one counseling by our professionals and the doubts were also addressed by CEDP Trust's lecturers. In-depth information on 'Hospitality', 'Medical-care' and 'Automobile' industries was provided by the Founder and Director of CEDP Skill Institute Ms. Shaheen Khan.